Report on Swachhata Pakhwada 2025

Date:29-12-2025

Venue: Market Area, Rani

As part of the Swachhata Pakhwada 2025 celebrations, the ICAR–National Research Centre on Pig (ICAR-NRC on Pig), Guwahati organized a Swachhata Shramdaan and plogging drive at the local market place and Rani Mandir area. The programme witnessed active participation from the scientists and staff of ICAR-NRC on Pig, along with enthusiastic involvement of local residents. During the drive, plastic waste and other litter accumulated in and around the market place and adjoining public areas were systematically collected and removed, contributing to improved cleanliness and environmental hygiene.

The joint effort of the institute and local community highlighted the importance of collective action in achieving the objectives of the Swachhata Pakhwada initiative. The programme was effectively coordinated by Dr. Vishal Rai, Scientist, ICAR-NRC on Pig.
